

Leave satellite radio alone, every thing in this country is run by the almighty buck. If people want to listen to regular radio or satellite radio they have a choice, they are adults and can decide for themselves. I listen to both depending on my mood. The NAB should not be able to decide whether I get my traffic and weather via satellite radio or regular radio.